SUMMARY

---

As a senior level designer, I run my projects in an efficient and organized manner. I am highly motivated, detail-oriented with refined and sophisticated taste. I design within or under client's budget. I am an articulate communicator with fluent bilingual skills, and exhibit great time management abilities. I am looking for a collaborative position with growth possibilities in a creative firm. My years of experience in residential, commercial and hospitality design make me a great asset for any design team.
